A PUPPY'S PRAYER

Don't buy me for Christmas
If I'm only going to stay
To cheer you for the holidays
And then be sent away...
Please don't offer me a home
And family of my own,
With fancy collar on my neck
And Santa's flavored bone,
If just a few days later
You will tire of having me
And I will be discarded
With the worn out Christmas tree.
If I can have a prayer, I'll ask
My patron saints to try
To send me someone I can love,
Who will love me 'till I die.
